Lindi Setiloane is a Registered Clinical Counsellor (RCC) as well as a Canadian Certified Counsellor & Supervisor (CCC-S). With over 15 years of experience as a therapist, Lindi offers a collaborative working environment to help counsellors navigate complex ethical issues, sharpen assessment skills, create comprehensive treatment plans, and practice consistent self-care.

Lindi strives to create a safe place for supervisees to set professional goals, improve boundaries, discuss sessions, integrate theory and practice, address transference/ parallel process and receive solid clinical support. Lindi's hope as a clinical supervisor is to reduce professional isolation while maintaining a respectful, collaborative, culturally safe and trauma-informed environment. *Supervisees should disclose to their clients that they will be discussing treatment with a clinical supervisor.
