I am specialized in trauma and addictions healing , with life experiences and extensive training , and I am passionate about helping others through these life changing circumstances . I believe in healing that promotes positive and lasting changes using evidence - based models that use a trauma informed approach .

I have supervised individuals and groups for many years , and this is also one of my passions . I look forward to hearing from you . Feedback from those I supervise is they feel empowered , supported , heard and valued . My other passion is jazz for I am a jazz singer , and a working artist .
