Hello, my name is Marnie Bates. I am a Registered Clinical Counsellor (RCC) and Clinical Counselling Supervisor on the North Shore, with over 20 years of experience in the field. My practice focuses on Family Counselling, Child, Youth, and Young Adult Counselling, as well as Parenting Support. I work with both neurotypical and neuro-diverse individuals, specializing in helping navigate a variety of personal and social challenges, including anxiety and depression, emotional regulation, separation and divorce, and more. As a clinical supervisor, I thoroughly enjoy providing supervision to therapists and counselors, particularly those working with children, youth and families. My approach is supportive and collaborative, aimed at enhancing your clinical skills and ensuring the best outcomes for your clients. If you are looking for a Clinical Supervisor, please don't hesitate to contact me. I offer individual supervision, or you are welcome to join my group supervision, where clinicians come together to learn from and support one another in a fun, collaborative, and supportive setting. Please find me through www.marniebates.com, via email at batesmarnie@gmail.com, or by calling me directly at 778.866.8434. Let's work together to navigate the complexities of therapeutic practice and foster growth in your professional journey.
