Britta West has been providing Clinical Supervision for over ten years in various settings within both the public and private sectors. She also provides Supervision of Supervision to supervisors looking to develop clinical expertise with their supervisees as well as their leadership styles. Most importantly, Britta's extensive knowledge of the professional practice landscape assists therapists and supervisors in ensuring they are in convention with the most current standards and ethics in the field. Britta develops clinicians and supervisors so that they are confident and knowledgeable in the practice of psychotherapy, but also in the professional practice arena as well. Britta has clinical specialties in Trauma, Family systems, Children's mental health, High Conflict families, Therapeutic Reunification and Parenting Planning. Britta runs a well established Supervision Group (MANTRA Group) and a Supervision of Supervision Group (Aura Group) for BC therapists and supervisors and is welcoming new members to both.
