I found my calling for working as a counsellor while working with people in nature. I grew as therapist in a government clinical setting working with children, youth, families, and adults. I am trained in CBT, DBT, EMDR, Social Thinking art and play therapy. I am a certified EMDR therapist and Consultant in Training.

I work from a decolonizing, postmodern, trauma informed perspective. I see my role as a supervisor/consultant to provide space for my colleagues to explore their own strengths, wisdom and awareness, while providing concrete resources to help their practice grow.

My areas of specialty are indigenous and rural populations; children, youth, parents; neurodivergent folks; chronic health issues; grief and loss; trauma and attachment.
