Dr. Stephen Madigan teaches, trains, consults and supervises globally. He is an award-winning narrative therapist, best-selling therapy author, Training Director of the Vancouver School for Narrative Therapy, content manager of VSNT live, and longtime clinical supervisor to Norway's High Couple Conflict Teams. His trainings and supervision methods are studied in Graduate University programs across the world for their a) up-close attention to therapeutic questions, b) skill in helping therapists clarify the ecology of the receiving context they receive client stories into, and c) how quickly therapists advance their practice work forward. His 3rd Edition his APA published book Narrative Therapy will be out in March 2025 and ~ he is of course only interested in providing narrative therapy supervision.
