COUNSELLORS

STANDARDS OF CLINICAL PRACTICE
Marketing, Advertising, and Fees for Service

Effective January 3, 2025

OVERVIEW: STANDARDS OF CLINICAL PRACTICE

STANDARD 1: CLIENT-CENTERED CARE AND CONSENT

The Clinical Counsellor ensures that every aspect of care is centered around the client's immediate and ongoing needs and goals.

STANDARD 2: COMPETENCE AND QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

The Clinical Counsellor develops and maintains their competence, applies evidence-informed methods, critical thinking and professional judgment, and engages in quality improvement to best serve clients and protect the public.

STANDARD 3: PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY AND COMMUNICATION

The Clinical Counsellor meets the ethical and legal requirements of professional practice and demonstrates responsible caring, honesty, integrity and respect for all persons and peoples. The Clinical Counsellor is truthful, accurate, and clear in all communications, respecting and supporting a client's, or potential client's, ability to make informed judgements and choices, and addresses misrepresentations appropriately.

STANDARD 4: DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION AND ANTI-RACISM

The Clinical Counsellor demonstrates cultural humility, which begins with a self-examination of values, assumptions, beliefs, and privileges embedded in their own knowledge and practice, and consideration of how this may impact therapeutic relationships with all clients. In collaboration with the client, the Clinical Counsellor facilitates safer health care experiences where clients' physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, social, and cultural needs can be met.

STANDARD 5: INDIGENOUS CULTURAL SAFETY, CULTURAL HUMILITY, AND ANTI-RACISM

The Clinical Counsellor strives to be well-versed in the unique issues caused by structural and systemic racism and the impact on Indigenous clients. The Clinical Counsellor works to ensure they address systemic issues within the practice environment while creating a culturally informed, collaborative, and safer clinical experience for clients. Clinical Counsellors ensure they practice with cultural humility and awareness of systemic racism ensuring Indigenous clients get access to relevant, culturally informed, anti-racist care.

STANDARD 6: CLINICAL AND COUNSELLING ASSESSMENT AND REPORTING

The Clinical Counsellor, within their individual range of competencies, training, and experience, conducts clinical or counselling assessments and prepares clear, concise, accurate, and timely reports appropriate to the needs of the client and the recipient.

STANDARD 7: VIRTUAL PRACTICE AND DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES

The Clinical Counsellor integrates technology and provides services via remote (virtual) means in a manner that does not compromise quality or integrity of professional service and is in the client's best interests.

STANDARD 8: RELATIONSHIPS, BOUNDARIES AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Clinical Counsellor manages relationships intentionally, maintains appropriate professional boundaries, and recognizes, prevents, and takes action to resolve conflicts of interest—direct, potential, or perceived.

STANDARD 9: SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

The Clinical Counsellor refrains from all activities that would create the potential for sexual misconduct, including activities that exploit the power imbalance and/or trust required of the therapeutic relationship.

STANDARD 10: PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

The Clinical Counsellor respects clients' rights to the privacy and confidentiality of their personal information. All clinical content communicated through the course of care by both parties, including information contained in the clinical record is considered to be protected client information. Clinical Counsellors protect all communicated and stored client information and comply with relevant legislation, ethical guidelines and regulatory standards related to privacy and confidentiality at all times.

STANDARD 11: MARKETING, ADVERTISING AND FEES FOR SERVICE

The Clinical Counsellor is truthful, accurate, and clear in all communications, and considers approaches to advertising and marketing activities that are in the best interests of clients and potential clients, and that respect and support the ability to make informed judgements and choices.

STANDARD 12: DOCUMENTATION AND RECORD KEEPING

The Clinical Counsellor maintains and secures client and financial records with the highest integrity, adhering to BCACC bylaws and applicable legislative and regulatory requirements.

STANDARD 13: ETHICAL CONDUCT

The Clinical Counsellor adheres to the ethical principles contained within the BCACC Code of Ethical Conduct and demonstrates ethical behaviour in all professional activities, recognizing the variable nature of ethical concerns and engaging in self-reflective, respectful, and caring practices to protect the inherent worth and wellbeing of all their clients.

STANDARD 11: MARKETING, ADVERTISING, AND FEES FOR SERVICE

The Clinical Counsellor is truthful, accurate, and clear in all communications, and considers approaches to advertising and marketing activities that are in the best interests of clients and potential clients, and that respect and support the ability to make informed judgements and choices.

Expected Outcome:

Clients and the general public can expect professional integrity and transparency in all communications and marketing activities undertaken by Clinical Counsellors.

Criteria

The Clinical Counsellor:

- 11.1 Respects and supports a prospective client's ability to make informed choices based on advertising and marketing material which may include:
 - a. Contact information.
 - b. Hours of availability
 - c. Types of service(s) offered.
 - d. Costs of service(s) offered.
- 11.2 Understands professional fee structures, and reviews and adheres to third-party agreements the Clinical Counsellor participates in.
- 11.3 Sets fees for service that are reflective of the level of expertise of the Clinical Counsellor, consistent with prevailing fee structures in the community, and that are recommended by BCACC.
- 11.4 States services and time durations associated with block or plan fee structures clearly, including payment plans, memberships, subscriptions and any forfeitures associated with early termination of such.
- 11.5 Is transparent about accepted methods of payment (i.e., cash, credit card, etc.).
- 11.6 Discloses fees for service and undertakes payment agreements with clients.
- 11.7 Applies discounts or reductions to fees for services with discernment.
- 11.8 Provides reasonable notice of increasing fees for services.
- 11.9 Avoids modifying fee schedules for third-party payors. Avoids issuing receipts to others unless they are the client/payor. Where the payor is not the client, the Clinical Counsellor clearly indicates who the client is that services were provided to.
- 11.10 Issues receipts for service only to those clients who directly received the service.
- 11.11 Issues receipts for service clearly stating the professional who delivered the service, including registration or licensing numbers belonging only to the service provider. Does not allow their registration or licensing number to be utilized in a misleading way on documentation.

- 11.12 Ensures that interns, students and supervisees do not utilize the Clinical Counsellor's registration or licensing number on any profession documentation.
- 11.13 Provides clients with referrals to appropriate services in the event that the client is no longer able to pay for agreed services.
- 11.14 Refrains from selling or assigning client debt, though collection of debts may be outsourced to a third party.
- 11.15 Refrains from soliciting prospective clients/clients in a manner that does not respect consent to be solicited and/or is pressuring.
- 11.16 Avoids recruiting clients from organizations in which the practitioner is in positions on those Boards, Councils, and/or Committees.
- 11.17 Carefully considers the use of testimonials from clients for marketing purposes ensuring client anonymity is encouraged and it does not contravene ethical principles otherwise outlined or create undue pressure that negatively impacts the client or clinical process.
- 11.18 Ensures public communications and advertising through social media and other platforms are not false, misleading, illegitimate, unverifiable, or reflect negatively on the profession.
