My name is Emma Aslanifar, and I am an Approved Clinical Supervisor with over 12 years of experience as a clinical counselor. I have spent the past 5 years supervising clinical counselors, counseling students, music therapists, and art therapists. In this role, I provide both individual and group supervision, guiding professionals at various stages of their careers and helping them enhance their clinical skills and competencies. I specialize in a range of therapeutic approaches and am committed to fostering growth, self-reflection, and professional development in those I supervise. By empowering counselors and therapists to refine their skills, I strive to create a ripple effect in the field, enabling them to better serve and support their clients' well-being. Additionally, I am open to collaborating with universities and colleges to offer supervision for students during their practicum or training programs, ensuring they receive comprehensive and supportive guidance as they prepare for their careers in counseling and therapy.
