I am a cis-gender, person of color, immigrant settler. I have a BA in Psychology (England) and a MP in Counselling Psychology (Australia).

I have worked in Canada and internationally providing counselling; assessments, outreach; consultations; CISD; and PFA within private practice, NHS, juvenile corrections, community education, refugee camps, schools, EFAP, and university counselling to diverse populations.

My supervision focus is integrative based on a client-centered framework while weaving in feminist, psychotherapy, orientation, and developmental methods. I offer safe space for growth in theory and application by providing collaborative discussion and experiential activities within the systemic triad.

I have training and experience in supervision methods and application, having supervised students; Counsellors and Psychologists from novice to experienced; Psychosocial Emergency and Development staff; been involved in peer supervision; and supervision of supervisors. I have knowledge, experience and am committed to the adherence of ethics and legal standards in accordance with regulatory guidelines.
