I am a BCACC Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) providing clinical supervision in both Korean and English. I support counsellors in developing their clinical skills, confidence, and professional identity through a collaborative and culturally responsive approach.

My supervision areas include Trauma & PTSD, family and relationship concerns, case conceptualization and counselor development.

As a bilingual supervisor, I also provide culturally informed supervision for counsellors working with Korean and multicultural clients. My goal is to create a supportive and reflective supervision environment where counsellors can strengthen their clinical judgement, deepen their self awareness, and continue to grow as competent and ethical professionals.
