Marvin is a Registered Clinical Counsellor and Approved Clinical Supervisor with the BC Association of Clinical Counsellors (BCACC). With over 15 years of clinical experience, he has worked with children, youth, adults, and families in community, government, hospital, and private practice settings. His areas of expertise include trauma, anxiety, depression, relationship concerns, and complex mental health challenges.

Marvin holds a MA in Counselling from Trinity Western University and a Diploma from the Society of Existential Analysis. He is trained in EMDR, Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT), Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT), Motivational Interviewing, and Early Psychosis Intervention.

As a clinical supervisor, Marvin is committed to fostering reflective practice, ethical decision-making, and professional growth. He offers a collaborative and supportive supervisory relationship that balances encouragement with thoughtful challenge, helping counsellors strengthen their clinical skills, deepen self-awareness, and develop confidence while remaining authentic to their own therapeutic approach.
